PART 1

I've learnt English for six years and I usually find it challenging to learn its vocabulary. Here are some tips I've tried to improve my vocabulary learning. Firstly, I spend time reading different kinds of English books, from short stories to novels. When I see a new word, I try to guess its meaning from the sentence. Secondly, I use a good dictionary. My mum bought me an English-English dictionary three years ago. Whenever I cannot find the meaning of a new word, I look it up, check its meaning and pronunciation in the dictionary. The dictionary also helps me understand better when to use the word. Thirdly, I've made my own vocabulary notebook. I have the habit of copying all new words into a notebook. This way I can know how many words I've learnt and can revise the words easily. Finally, I take every opportunity to speak with people in English. I try to use the words I've learnt and pick up more new words from these conversations. I've done these things regularly and now I'm quite confident about my English vocabulary.

PART 2

My favourite electronic device is a robotic vacuum cleaner which helps me to clean the floors, a laborious and boring task. First, it can automatically clean almost all dust, spots, and dirty marks in my house. Second, I can control it by using an app on my smartphone when I'm away from home. Finally, it's easy to store and carry my robotic vacuum cleaner because it's smaller than a normal vacuum cleaner. I think there'll be a lot of things that a robotic vacuum cleaner can do in the future. First, it'll be able to recognise patterns and then take action. It'll go to a place where you have eaten and suck up all the crumbs there. Second, it'll be able to climb stairs and even open doors or drawers. So it'll be able to get to any floor or room in our houses. Finally, laser technology will make it recognise anything on the ground like dust or dirt. With these improvements, I think robotic vacuum cleaners will be more helpful to us in the future.
