Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions.

Today, many students use electronic devices for studying. These devices include smartphones, tablets, and laptops. They help students do homework, look for information, and join online lessons. Many learning materials are available on the internet, such as videos, e-books, and exercises. Students can study at home or anywhere they want.

At school, teachers also use electronic tools like projectors or smart boards. These make the lessons more interesting and easier to understand. Some students use apps to learn English, solve math problems, or read stories. Learning is more fun with games, songs, and pictures on the screen.

However, students should not use devices all the time. If they spend too much time playing games or watching videos, they may forget to study. Also, it is not good for their eyes or health to look at the screen for too long.

In conclusion, electronic devices are useful for studying. They help students learn in new ways. But students need to use them in a smart way and have time to rest. A good balance is very important.

Question 31. What is the possible title of the passage?

- A. The use of apps in teaching and studying
- B. The problems caused by using smartphones at school
- C. The role of teachers in modern classrooms
- D. The benefits and smart use of electronic devices in studying

Question 32. What do students use electronic devices for?

- A. Cook meals
- B. Do homework and join online lessons
