Phong's school has a number of volunteer activities every summer. The activities include donating books to village children, tutoring kids in the neighbourhood, teaching English to primary students, reading books and cooking food for the needy. His school started this programme five years ago. Every student can join one or two activities. In the beginning, they thought about why they should join in these activities. They then thought about what activities they wanted to do. Those who like reading could choose to collect and donate books. Those who are good at English could tutor primary students. Finally, they signed up for the activities they chose. Their teachers often encourage them to stay committed. They also help when the students need it. Phong and his friends have a lot of fun and learn many things from doing the activities.
