COMPUTERS

Computers are helpful in many ways. First, they are fast. They can work with information even more quickly than a person. They help humans to complete their tasks in a few seconds. Second, computers can work with a lot of information at the same time. Third, they can keep huge information for a long time. They do not forget things that the common people do. Moreover, computers are almost always correct. They are not perfect, but they do not usually make mistakes.

On the other hand, computers are just machines. They cannot think or do things on their own, so humans must feed them with information and tell them what to do with it. They cannot come up with any new information. But they can save much time and work.

Recently, it is important to know about computers. There are a few things to learn. Some companies have classes at work. In addition, most universities offer day and night courses in Computer Science. Another way to learn is from a book, or from a friend. After a few hours of practice, you can work with computers. You may not be an expert, but you can have fun with it.

Example:

0. Computers are _____ in many ways.

A. big

B. bad

C. helpful

D. correct

1. How do computers work with information?

A. slowly

B. fast

C. incorrectly

D. perfectly

2. Which of the following statements is NOT TRUE?

A. Computers do not forget things like humans.

B. Computers do not usually make mistakes.

C. It is not necessary to learn how to use a computer.

D. You can know how to use a computer after some practice.

3. The word "huge" in the passage has the same meaning as _____.

A. small

B. cheap

C. costly

D. enormous

4. Why do humans have to feed computers with information and tell them what to do?

Because _____.

A. computers can save time and work

B. computers cannot think or do things on their own

C. computers can come up with any new information

D. computers can help us in many ways

5. What is the passage mainly about?

A. Some good points of computers

B. Some bad points of computers

C. The ways to invent computers

D. The ways to use computers
