The Theory of Everything is a biographical film, directed by James Marsh in 2014. It stars Eddie Redmayne and Felicity Jones.

The film is about the life of the scientist Stephen Hawking. It was adapted by Anthony McCarten from the book Travelling to infinity: My life with Stephen by the scientist's wife, Jane Hawking. The film is set in England in the early 1960s. It tells the story of Hawking's relationship with his wife, the diagnosis of his motor neuron disease and his success in the field of physics.

The film received positive reviews. People say it is a must-see. I agree, because the story is moving and the acting is excellent. The music is also incredible. Although The Theory of Everything is a little sad at times, its story is very interesting and there is a lot of action. Go and see it if you can.

Part I

The festival of Diwali is one of the most important religious festivals in India. It lasts for five days around the end of October. It is the festival of Lakshimi, the Goddess who, in the Hindu religion, brings peace and property. Preparations for the festival begin several weeks before the festival. People clean and decorate their homes, prepare special food and buy new clothes and jewelry to welcome the Goddess in their homes. All over India, people light up their homes with oil lamps and colorful lights. The celebrations take place on the darkest night of the lunar month, Amavasya. In the evening, fireworks fill the sky to make Diwali a true “Festival of Light”

Part II:

What film shall we see?

Duong: I'm bored. Do you have any plans this evening?

Mai: No... What shall we do?

Duong: How about seeing a film?

Mai: Good idea! What shall we see?

Duong: Let's take a look at the film section of the paper. It says that White Sands is showing at Kim Dong Cinema at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

Mai: It's a horror film. That's too frightening for me.

Duong: OK, they are also showing Crazy Coconut at Ngoc Khanh Cinema.

Mai: What kind of film is it?

Duong: It's a romantic comedy.

Mai: What is it about?

Duong: It's about a female professor and a male film star. They get shipwrecked on a deserted island and have to live together. Although the professor hates the film star at first, she falls in love with him in the end.

Mai: Who does it star?

Duong: It stars Julia Roberts and Brad Pitt.

Mai: What have critics said about it?

Duong: Most of them say it's very funny and entertaining.

Mai: Hmm. I know. Why don't we decide when we get there?

Duong: OK, good idea!
